CHASING A SHADOW.
WAR TRUTHS DISPLEASE.
48 YEARS' WORK. THANKS.

—By Arthur Brisbane—
(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

A flying machine equipped with oxygen for high altitude will take Captain A. W. Stevens of the army air corps, 20,000 feet up to photograph the sun's eclipse. Lieutenant J. D. Cuthbert will run the machine and a scientist from the telephone company will go along.

TWENTY THOUSAND feet up the plane, turning sharply, will seek to follow with its camera-eye the shadow travelling 1,800 miles an hour.

Someday when travel planes go 1,000 miles an hour, it will be possible to fly with the sun directly above the pilot, 24 hours in succession. Scientists once laughed at that, now they discuss it. Later they will accomplish it.

In prohibition discussion, two ugly words, "rebellion" and "revolution" are heard. Rightly or wrongly, prohibition and bootlegging born of prohibition are blamed for the crime wave and horribly over-crowded prisons, in one of which men were recently burned alive by the hundreds.

A prominent college athlete and coach testifies that young girls drink as they never did before. The daughter-in-law of the late Theodore Roosevelt testifies that, whereas young girls never drank, they nearly all drink now.

PITY A GREAT NATION, that should solve its drinking problem by common sense, self control, and conservative legislation, concentrating the attention of national, state and city governments on whisky.

WILLIAM MANCK, 48 years a letter carrier, absent only one week in 48 years, retires. His superiors shake hands with him and are photographed doing it. That's kind, but Uncle Sam might do more.

He might give William Manck and other faithful servants of the post office a generous pension on which they could live comfortably when their hard work is done.

And without waiting for them to be worn out, he might give them generous pay, which he does not do.

The richest employer in the world should be at that just.

IN WAR, EVERYTHING on your side is beautiful patriotism, on the other side, horrible brutality.

Later you look at war from a distance and things seem to change. The British are outraged by a book called "A Brass Hat in No-Man's Land," written by the British Brigadier Crozier.

He describes revoltingly the execution of a British soldier for cowardice, describes drunkenness among officers, and widespread immorality, among men of all ranks.

GENERAL CROZIER tells how British soldiers were made bloodthirsty by lying tales of German atrocities to bring out the "brutal bestiality" and necessary for victory, and adds, "The Christian churches are the finest blood lust creators we have, and of them we make free use."

The London Chronicle and other papers refuse to review the book.

OUR NEWLY DISCOVERED planet, circling around the sun, far out beyond Neptune, is the most interesting thing in the news. We are only a little more than 90,000,000 miles from the sun. This new planet, about the size of our earth, is 1,355,000,000 miles from the sun.

Multiply that by six and you will know approximately the length of the far off planet's journey round the sun.

ON THAT PLANET YOU must live 3,200 earth years in order to be one year old.

To see the new neighbor, look now. It will be visible with earth's telescopes only about a hundred years longer, and then be hidden for 3,000 years, while it finishes one of its own years.

Japanese custom compels each person to speak with great humbleness on achievement.

The clever Japanese statesman, Wakatsuki, who got everything for Japan that he wanted, gave nothing that he didn't want to give, writes his government lambasting his "inadequate lamenting" his work "regrettably insufficient," and winding up "I am ashamed."

PRESIDENT HOOVER got no such report from his delegates. They, in language of the race track, got "a Texas stand-off." They didn't win anything, but escaped with their lives.

Bandit Foiled

CINCINNATI, April 25.—The Ludlow branch of the Second National bank here, robbed of $8,000 several weeks ago, disappointed a lone "hood" visitor yesterday. J. P. Coogan, manager, dropped behind a counter and set off an alarm. The man fled.

CONVICTS CLAIM BLAZE INCENDIARY

Body Of Kenneth Crouch Arrives Here

IDENTIFICATION MADE THURSDAY BY HIS BROTHER

Salem Man Lost Life In Penitentiary Fire On Monday Night

HAD BIRTHDAY IN PRISON ON SUNDAY

Theft Of Ten Dollars In Robbery Here Caused Man's Sentence

The body of Kenneth Crouch, Salem man who died in the Ohio state penitentiary fire in Columbus Monday night, arrived in Salem at 8:17 a. m. today.

Identification was made Friday afternoon in the improvised morgue in Columbus by Ralph Crouch, brother of the deceased man who accompanied the body home. The remains were taken to the Arbaugh funeral home, where funeral arrangements are being made this afternoon.

Crouch was in the 5-H cell block in the capital prison. All prisoners in the cell were badly burned. The Salem man is believed to have been smothered to death, his body having only slight traces of having come in direct contact with flames.

He was serving a sentence imposed on him in the Columbus county common pleas court in Lisbon after having pleaded guilty to robbing a Salem gasoline station of $10.

Was 24 Years Old
Crouch was born on April 26, 1906, and observed his 24th birthday anniversary at the prison last Sunday. His death resulted one day later in the blaze which swept four cell blocks and caused deaths of 317 fellow-prisoners also.

He attended Salem public schools and the high school here. He was widely known for his connection with sandlot athletic activities having played independent football and officiated in baseball games as umpire.

He is survived by his widow and two children in addition to three brothers, Paul and Ralph of this city, a third who resides in Sebring, and three sisters. His mother, Mrs. Margaret Crouch, died two years ago, while his father preceded his widow in death.

Private funeral service at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Arbaugh funeral home, 1617 East State st. in charge of Rev. C. A. Roth, rector of the Church of Our Saviour; interment in Hope cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 until 9 p. m. Saturday.

FARM TROOPS DIE IN BATTLE

Reds Press Soil Tillers Into Service; Towns Are Looted

HANKOW, April 25.—Chinese press dispatches received here today reported that 2,000 farmers, who had been forced to join the ranks of the Communists, had been slain during the battles with government troops near the northeast Hupoh province town of Shinte.

The dispatches said that government troops had defeated the Reds, although the latter's leaders had escaped, preceded to the nearby town and after sacking the place massacred 1,800 men, women and children.

It was further reported that other towns in the neighborhood, hearing of the Communists' depredations had evacuated, the entire population leaving the towns to the looting invaders.

Chicago Not So Bad, Speaker Tells Group

TULSA, OKLA., April 25.—Although he quoted a "popular report" that Chicago last year spent $30,000,000 for liquor, Charles S. Peterson, Chicago city treasurer, last night assured listeners at a chamber of commerce banquet here that the Illinois city was neither broke nor wicked.

Peterson did not attempt to qualify the "popular report." He was a member of a good will party of visitors here.

"In comparison to population the crime rate in Chicago is not so great as that in other cities," Peterson continued. It is the thirty-ninth city in the United States when crime is figured in relation to population.

UNCLAIMED DEAD OF PRISON FIRE WILL BE BURIED WITH SERVICE

Sixty Victims To Go Into One Grave At Columbus; Catholics Buried In Consecrated Ground; Eighty-Eight Bodies Remain

(By The Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, April 25.—The unclaimed dead—broken bodies of convicts whose lives were claimed by fire while they were locked in their cells at Ohio penitentiary—were to be consigned to the earth late today. These men, sinners against society, were to go to their last rest unmourned by relative and friend.

Sixty of the victims were to form this mass funeral procession from the temporary morgue to one huge grave in Eastlawn cemetery, the Negro victims were to be buried in Evergreen cemetery.

Most of these men have been identified, but their bodies were unclaimed. Relatives and friends had deserted them when they entered Ohio penitentiary, and now these same relatives and friends left them to go to their last rest with only the impersonal state of Ohio attending their remains. The state, which demanded of these men the penalty for their crimes—is their nearest of kin.

To the credit of some relatives and friends it is said they did not desert their dead. They came, seeking the mortal remains of a loved one. They went away empty handed, for they could not identify those they sought among the burned corpses.

At 4 p. m. today, as the sun sinks its way into the west, so also will these many caskets sink into the grave with only the words of a minister intoning "dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return."

Burial of Catholic prisoners will be in charge of Rev. Fr. O'Brien, penitentiary chaplain. They will be laid to rest in consecrated ground, in accordance with the wishes of the church.

The mass funeral ceremony will leave 88 bodies at the improvised morgue at the fairgrounds, including 23 which have been unidentified.

These will be held for a time in the hope that relatives will claim the unknown victims and that the 70 bodies have been released from the morgue to families of the victims.

STEEL MERGER PETITION FILED

Move Is Made To End Attempt To Join Big Steel Firms

YOUNGSTOWN, April 25.—The first move in an expected long legal battle to block the merger of Youngstown Sheet and Tube company with the Bethlehem Steel corporation was under way today with the filing of a petition to restrain the deal.

The petition, filed here late yesterday by the forces of Cyrus R. Eaton, Cleveland financier and leader of the opposition, charges fraud on the part of the promoter forces and challenges the legality of the voting of approximately 70,000 shares, more than enough to wipe out the two-thirds majority by which stockholders approved the consolidation.

The fraud charges were based on the failure of Sheet and Tube directors to inform stockholders of their alleged lack of knowledge of Bethlehem's condition. The Eaton group has contended that Sheet and Tube's position is better than that of Bethlehem.

Eugene C. Grace, president of Bethlehem, said at his New York office that the pro-merger forces have no doubt but what they will be successful in the end.

Grace also reiterated his assertions that Bethlehem is willing to pay cash to dissatisfied Sheet and Tube stockholders who do not wish to exchange stock. Should all of the dissenting stockholders demand cash payments, approximately 310,000 shares would have to be purchased at a price running into several million dollars.

BULLETIN
STAMFORD, CONN., April 25.—Sixteen members of the crew of the Long Island sound freighter Thama, plying from New York to Bridgeport, burned last night off here, were missing late this forenoon. Ten were saved.

(By The Associated Press)

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., April 25.—Several members of the crew of the freighter Thama were believed today to have perished when the vessel burned to the waterline and sank in Long Island sound off Sound Beach, Conn.

Radio messages told of the rescue of part of the crew and one man was brought ashore here, but the numbers were given only accounted for 15 men. The Thama carried 24 One rescue craft, a radio message said, picked up "some of the men" but did not give the number.

Clarence Tibbitts, chief engineer was brought here on the oyster vessel "Albert" which picked him up after he had been in the water an hour. He said he saw several of his shipmates sink as they floundered in the heavy sea after jumping from the burning freighter.

Vessel Was Small
The Thama, a small vessel of 300 tons, was enroute from New York to New London, Conn., last night when she caught fire. Messages telling of the fire did not state how it originated or give other details. The vessel is operated by the Thames river steamship line.

A message intercepted by the radio marine station at New York said the steamer Lexington, bound for Providence, R. I., picked up nine men. Another message said a vessel bound for New Bedford, Conn., had rescued "some of the men" but did not give the number.

The department at Sound Beach received word that a coast guard patrol boat had picked up five men.

Captain George Wilson, owner of the schooner which picked up Tibbitts, charged that three steamers which were at the scene of the fire refused to turn their searchlights on the water to help locate men who were swimming and shouting for help.

Both of these contracts will be awarded at the same letting by the commissioners.

When grading progresses a little farther on the Valley-Salem road, the county commissioners will also award surfacing. The road is being improved for a distance of six miles.

DISORDER QUIETS RAPIDLY, REPORT

March To Breakfast With Snappy Step; Eat With Relish

Columbus, O., April 25.—An unnamed convict, occupant of the H cell block at Ohio penitentiary where 319 men died in the disastrous fire, appeared voluntarily in Warden Preston Thomas' office today and said that one of the prisoners in that section had announced Sunday that "this block will be on fire tomorrow." The fatal blaze occurred Monday night.

The convict was said to have named the man who made the statement. He was turned over to the state fire marshal for further questioning.

Prison officials said the name of the informant would be withheld.

Gasoline Smuggled
A former Ohio penitentiary convict, in a letter to prison officials today, said that a small group of prisoners within the walls had been smuggling in gasoline for some time. The fire marshal is investigating. The name of the writer was not given out.

Twenty-five guards, in addition to the 25 added to the force yesterday, were employed at the prison today.

DOCTOR TELLS PLANET IDEAS

Thinks New Lowell Star Part Of Larger Body Now Disintegrated

OTTAWA, April 25.—Dr. F. Henrioteau of the Dominion observatory, announced today that he believed the astral body photographed here six years ago and planet X, discovered by Lowell observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., were parts of one large planet which had disintegrated.

When the object was first noticed last week on a photographic plate made in 1924, it was believed to be identical with planet X, but after computing what the position of planet X would have been in 1924, this theory was abandoned.

The Canadian find and planet X are both beyond the planet Neptune or about 40 times as far from the sun as the earth. They are of about the same magnitude and both have been proved to be in motion.

Dr. Henrioteau said that his theory was based on the fact that a large planet at one time existed between Mars and Jupiter and had disintegrated millions of years ago. More than 1,000 pieces of that planet were discovered by the Italian astronomer, Piazzi in 1801, he said.

Observatory officials under the direction of Dr. Meldrum Stewart are examining telescopic photographs taken as far back as 1908 in hope of finding some earlier record of either of the Canadian object or planet X.

ARBOR DAY

"This morning the trees were the first living things to greet you as you left your home. Their sturdy presence helped you start the day more capably than you could have done alone. After a day of toil the trees are still there, always your friends and unmoved by the faulty judgments and sharp tongues of men.

Trees make a cool retreat for you during the heat of summer. They parade beautiful gowns for your delight in autumn. In winter their strong bodies make a shelter from the wind and snow. Spring fills them with life and the overflow of their vigor is an inspiration to all who may have been lulled into dullness by the winter. Every day, in every season, trees are performing services of deepest friendship to humanity. They do not ask for favors, they cannot solicit friendship. They are perfect friends.

It is, therefore, a thing of beautiful significance that man should show his gratefulness in some special way one day in every year. In Ohio this thanksgiving festival of Arbor Day is designated by a proclamation of the governor. This year, April 25 was the day chosen. Programs intended to show the value and interest of forestry and the duty of the public to plant trees both for beauty and protection of the birds are to be given in the majority of schools today. Pupils in many of the schools are to plant trees and shrubs.

Old friends, because they are such good friends, keep themselves in the background. Their presence is always welcome, but their true value may not be appreciated until one day they do not appear. It is so with trees. Ohio has millions of them. They are accepted with little thought of the bareness of a world without them.

It is not so everywhere. New York City is alarmed because it is reasonably certain that there will be no trees growing in it before the end of another decade. Smoke and fumes are killing them and when they are all gone men will mourn their absence. The same thing is happening in every large city. It is one of the reasons for Arbor Day, which reminds men that they have certain obligations toward their arboreal friends.

THE HARDING HIGHWAY

The revived interest in the Harding highway is good news for all cities located on the 263-mile route through Ohio. The program of improvement as it was outlined Wednesday in a Canton meeting by Senator W. A. Alsford, executive secretary of the Ohio Good Roads federation, will mean a vastly improved outlet for central Ohio and the southeastern portion of the state. Washington and points on the Atlantic seaboard. The route through Steubenville has become greatly favored because it avoids the delay caused by congestion in the Pittsburgh area.

The Harding highway association finds ample justification for existence in the results achieved by more than a dozen other highway associations in the country. They are the accepted way of keeping attention focused on a particular highway project. The Roosevelt, the Liberty, the William Penn, the Lincoln, the National, the Lakes-to-Seas, the Storm King, the Mohawk Trail, the Custer Battlefield, the Yellowstone Trail, the Susquehanna Trail and the Boston Post Road—all these highways resulted from concerted efforts by organized groups.

The Harding highway project, if it meets with success as it should by reason of its importance, will be kept alive and active by the same machinery.

The sum indicated to make the Harding highway a reality is large.

It will take years to obtain it and the magnitude of the task will call for the best efforts of many interested citizens. Some of them will not live to see their dreams realized and others will be irritated at the slowness with which legislation moves. The ideal of a great and important highway whose name honors the memory of one of the state's greatest citizens, however, will on and will be realized eventually.

The sum which cities along the route must raise to carry through the program will be used for propaganda, promotion and special highway mark it is not too much to ask for the service which the Harding highway could do for these cities, the state and the nation.

What Others Say

JUDICIAL CONFIRMATIONS

The character of the opposition to confirmation of the appointment of Judge John J. Parker to the supreme court of the United States is quite as instructive as the character of the opposition to Chief Justice Hughes was.

The threatening fight against the elevation of Judge Parker is not based on doubt about his character as a man or his general qualifications as a judge. It is a political, factional and prejudiced, and for the most part grows out of the fact that in performing his duties in the lower court, the judge has rendered decisions in accordance with his understanding of law and justice instead of trying to curry favor with the American Federation of Labor or with members of the negro race or with any other special interest or division of the population. It is reported that some of the senators are weak-kneed and are trying to get President Hoover to withdraw the nomination of Mr. Parker and the nomination of Mr. Parker and even are prepared to vote against his confirmation because they are afraid of political consequences if they do otherwise.

The embarrassment of the senators is directly their own fault. They did a silly thing when they discarded the custom of confirming presidential nomination in secret, executive sessions. The body as a whole invited trouble for itself and played directly into the hands of the relatively small, but exceedingly active and venomous, demagogic contingent when it made this change from tried and historic procedure. It did worse than that.

Under the new rule, the only candidates for high judicial place likely to get the senate O. K. without being attacked and pulled to pieces more or less, will be men who have succeeded in making themselves all things to all people, and if already on the bench, have uniformly rendered decisions acceptable to everybody, or at least always acceptable to interested organized sentiment.

Since there are extremely few people in the world able to please everybody at all times, and none such fit to preside over even the lowest court, confirmations to the supreme bench are likely to take on more and more the character of a cat-and-dog fight as the years pass, with good men becoming more and more reluctant to accept nominations; unless, of course, the senate has enough sense to restore the closed executive session. — Detroit Free Press.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

LIVE WISELY

"Everyone ought to be able to understand his own pulse and to recognize those things which are harmful or beneficial to him." These words have come down to us from Plutarch, that great Greek moralist who lived in the first century after Christ.

These words are just as true today as they were then and even more so. In our enlightened time, with benefits of education, modern science and medical skill free to everyone, man should know far better how to live, and live so that the body may be kept in health.

Most of the diseases of civilization are the inevitable consequences of our mistakes and misdeeds. Many of them are caused by faulty living. Faulty methods of living gradually lead to degenerative changes, which affect the various glands, tissues and organs of the body. Then are we at the mercy of the disease germs which gain a firm foothold in the system.

We enjoy hearing about how to live and how to avoid disease. The trouble is it is difficult to come first to the point of giving up practices which lead to sickness and disease, and then to the point of prevention of disease than I am in curative medicine. I always say that when you are really sick consult the doctor. It is the business of the trained physician to give the personal examination and treatment for any serious ill.

A Proper Diet
But right living and right thinking can keep the body in health. The palate and mental desire, deviancy, to say nothing more of the weaknesses of the flesh, are too much for the most of us. We do not take heed, when we know full well that we shall have to pay the bill.

How often do you eat more than your judgment approves? How many nights are there when you rob yourself of needed sleep, well knowing that you will feel miserable the next day? How often do you go out to a party in cold weather wearing garments too thin for wintry blasts?

You do these things, and worse, perhaps. Over-indulgence in alcohol, in smoking, or any other form of over-indulgence, takes a tax from your vital forces.

There are certain things which you cannot neglect if you are to guard against disease. These are certain conclusions of science that are accepted by all well-informed persons. Vaccination against smallpox is one. Inoculation against diphtheria, scarlet fever and typhoid fever are others.

Nations and empires were destroyed by malaria. Not until the world found that a certain type of mosquito carried the disease, was it known how to prevent malaria.

Today it is my single effort to recall to your mind the importance of doing those things which you know are necessary to your good health. I beg of you to observe the rules of health.

It has long been established that a proper diet will do much to prevent the degenerative diseases. With the right sort of food, and right methods of living, plenty of sleep, fresh air and exercise, you build for yourself. These will give the sort of body and mind without which life is hardly worth living.

The Stars Say
The sidereal operations for this day point to some sudden and quite unforeseen upheaval or changes of radical importance, which may not be ascertained as being either welcome or profitable. There may be all sorts of delays and stubborn obstacles to thwart the best-directed efforts, but these should be brought to bear on the most difficult situations. However, those in the employment of others may reap benefits or enjoy some preferments or favors.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of abrupt visitations and possibly unforeseen changes and upheavals which may radically affect the affairs. The best endeavor may be calling for to resist stubborn obstacles, and disconcerting delays, although employment is under a favorable way.

A child born on this day may have a changeable and restless nature, inclining it to much and strange adventure, which may prevent its making signal success of its efforts, although it should make some such in the employment of others.

VETERANS' BILL PASSES SENATE; VETO EXPECTED

Would Extend Compensation Limits To Include January 1930

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Much amended and attended by predictions of a presidential veto, the Johnson or "Rankin" bill, to extend and increase veterans' compensation, was turned over to the senate today by the house.

The measure was approved by the latter branch of congress last night after its author, Chairman Johnson of the veterans committee, had sought unsuccessfully to have it recommended because of the many amendments that had been written into the measure.

Failing in this, he obtained unanimous consent with the name of the measure to be changed to "The Rankin bill." Representative Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, had been the vigorous sponsor of most of the amendments.

The principal change in the veterans compensation laws that would be effected by the measure is an extension until January 1, 1930, of the time limit on disabilities entitled to compensation. As passed by the house, veterans would receive financial aid from the government for all disabilities incurred up until that time.

To increase compensation the total of compensation for total disability to $265 with lesser compensation in proportion dependent upon the percentage of disability. Veterans receiving hospital treatment, but no compensation would be given eight dollars a month throughout the period of their hospitalization.

Predictions were freely made that President Hoover would veto the measure because of the expenditures involved. Chairman Wood of the appropriations committee asserted that in view of the chief executive's appeal for curtailed appropriations as a means of maintaining a balanced federal budget, the measure should not be passed.

The vote was 234 to 49. The opposition, however, was successful in striking from the measure a clause to prohibit the comptroller general from disallowing compensation payments approved by the Veterans bureau.

QUIET REIGNS IN PEN OVER NIGHT

Chorus of Snarls By Inmates Only Disturbance In Idle House;

"Pat" McDermott Ill

COLUMBUS, April 23.—In the idle house at Ohio penitentiary, where unruly prisoners raised disturbances Wednesday night and all of yesterday, everything was quiet save for a chorus of snarls last night. The only interruption was a call from Company K, an outfit of bad men, "Pat" McDermott, slayer of Dan R. Mellett, had the stomach ache.

"Pat" was removed to the hospital ward for treatment. Later he was returned to his cell. There were no more interruptions.

Glass partitions on either side of the guard room through which roaming inmates in the cell blocks leered at the guards during yesterday's disorders were painted last night to close off the view.

Prayers Funeral Oration Over Radio

EL PASO, TEXAS, April 25.—Probably the first radio funeral took place here with the minister broadcasting his sermon from the church, the deceased's family with the body at the mortuary chapel seated around a radio and friends gathered at the high school auditorium around another radio.

The services were held for George Casten, high school student who died of spinal meningitis. Because of the contagious character of the disease, only members of the immediate family, who were exposed to the disease, were allowed in the mortuary chapel.

The Rev. H. D. Tucker, who preached the funeral service, was in a church in another part of the city. His sermon, the organ music and hymns were brought to the family by radio.

Another radio receiver brought the service to classmates of young Casten in the high school auditorium.

Princess Spending Months In Convent

LONDON, April 25.—The Daily Express today said that Princess Marie Louise, cousin of King George who recently returned from a trip to South America, was living a simple austere life in an Anglican convent called "The House of Mercy" near Horbury, Yorkshire.

The convent is headquarters for the Anglican order which does rescue work among girls, and the princess, the Express said, is spending a short time each year within the convent. She follows the rules of the order, rising early with the nuns, sharing the simple food, and assisting in the sad daily routine of looking after 60 girls within the convent.

NORTON, MASS.—Pianos are safe while the volunteer fire department of Wheaton college, led by Constance Campbell of Grand Rapids, Mich., is on the job. The town's fire truck broke down and a bunch of men showed no initiative when the home of Dr. Clarence Davis got ablaze. But the girls, 20 of them removed a big piano safely from the second story.

MINISTER WINS WEDDING FIGHT

Gets Admission From His Accusers That He Is Innocent

LEXINGTON, KY., April 25.—Victor in a fight he waged virtually unaided, Rev. Julius Arnold Veaseo, rector of St. John's Episcopal church at Dayton, Ky., today faced only an admonition by his bishop for his marriage to a Catholic and its aftermath.

The 31-year-old minister, whose romance led up to a two-day battle before an ecclesiastical court here to retain his church order, conferred last year only a few months before he married Catherine Rogers of Baltimore, was acquitted last night of the major accusations filed against him by a diocese committee.

Conducting his own defense, the rector forced from prosecution witnesses the admission that he violated no church law. He won a verdict from the court of fellow ministers that cleared him of charges that he violated an agreement to resign if he married a Catholic, and that he denied his bishop, the Rt. Rev. H. P. Allison Abbott, the right to enter his parish after the breach between them.

In the Christ church cathedral parish house where the hearing was held the petite blonde woman in the case sat unsmiling the two days, by special permission of the court.

The rector and his bride of three months returned last night to his tiny parish in the northern Kentucky suburb, across the Ohio river from Cincinnati, for ministering to which he received $2,600 a year salary.

The marriage was performed at Elliott City, Md., by a Catholic priest. The committee's position was that it destroyed his usefulness.

SIEGE EXISTS IN PESHAWAR; SOLDIERS DIE

British Correspondent In State Of Power Of Agitator

BOMBAY, INDIA, April 25.—A state of siege was understood here today to exist in Peshawar, buffer city between India and the Asian Barbarian Hinterland, as an outgrowth of rioting Wednesday in which three British soldiers were said to have been killed, eight wounded, and 12 natives killed.

An official statement at Simla, summer capital, said some of the political agitators jailed at Peshawar, were taken to Charsadda to prison. A crowd collected outside the jail but the constabulary dispersed them without bloodshed.

LONDON, April 25.—The Bombay correspondent of the London Daily News today said that the growth of strength of Mahatma Gandhi, Indian Nationalist leader, during the past fortnight, had been almost phenomenal.

LOANS MADE on Your Personal Responsibility

IT IS better to borrow money to pay old bills than to let them become past due. It is also a great deal more desirable to get a loan here than to borrow from friends or relatives.

We will loan you $10 to $300 confidentially and in a dignified, business-like way on your own responsibility. Only your own signatures are required. You are given ample time to repay us in small monthly amounts. There is a great deal more satisfaction in solving your own money problems in this way than to rely upon well-meaning but talkative friends.

Let us tell you more about this modern financing plan which helps the particular borrower to help himself. You will not be obligated in any way.

MURDER, SUICIDE SOCIETY WOMEN

Jealousy Ascribed Reason
For Deaths Of Two
In Arguments

(By The Associated Press)
LAGUNA BEACH, CAL., April 25.—Jealousy over social position was blamed by the authorities here today for the murder of Mrs. Doris Murray Palmer, an artist formerly of Chicago, and the suicide of Mrs. Guy Bates Post, erstwhile musical comedy star and divorced wife of a noted actor.

The bodies of the two women, who were reputed to have been "very close friends" were found in Mrs. Palmer's bungalow here late yesterday.

Mrs. Palmer, known as an artist and designer of scenery for the Laguna beach playhouse had been shot in the back. Mrs. Post's body was found lying on a revolver, in which two exploded shells were discovered.

Mrs. Post, known on the stage as Adele Ritchie, was seen moving about the Palmer house an hour before the bodies were found. Mrs. Palmer was believed to have been slain early in the afternoon, within 15 minutes of the time Mrs. Francis Berie, socially prominent here, had delivered an invitation to a luncheon that excluded Mrs. Post.

Sheriff Visits Reason
Sheriff Sam Jernigan said he believed the invitation fanned the jealousy between the two women into a frenzy that caused Mrs. Post to shoot Mrs. Palmer and then turn the pistol on herself.

Mrs. Post last year was director of the annual boy scout benefit play at the playhouse here, which is sponsored by Harold McCormick, multimillionaire son of the late Harvey McCormick of Chicago. Mrs. Post, because she designed the sets, was given the honor.

The change in directorship, their friends said, caused them to quarrel. Authorities said that when Mrs. Palmer was supervising a dress rehearsal of the play, Mrs. Post was heard to say "I'd like to shoot her."

The play was to have opened last night, but the double tragedy caused the theater to remain dark.

Found By Friends
The bodies were found by Verner Rush and Mrs. Kenneth Browne, who had gone the Palmer home to return Mrs. Palmer's pet dog that had been missing for several days. Mrs. Post was 36 years old. She married the actor in 1916 after a brilliant career on the stage. Four months ago she obtained a divorce in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Palmer, the former Doris Murray of Waukegan, Ill., was 32 years old and formerly was the wife of Dr. Charles Foster Palmer of Chicago. Sheriff Jernigan said Mrs. Post apparently had been stricken with remorse after shooting Mrs. Palmer and that for two hours afterwards she walked about the house and attempted to stop the flow of blood from the wound in her friend's heart. Later she washed her hands, leaving bloodstains on the bowl and towel.

The sheriff said he believed the

Drive It from Your System with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Constipation steals the best out of your life. Robs you of strength, vitality, health itself! And many people do not realize that perpetual fatigue, coated tongues, bad breath, are often signs that constipation is in their system.

You must move poisonous wastes out of your system and keep them moving. But there's a right way and a wrong way. Pills, drugs and ordinary cathartics give but temporary relief—and their dose must be constantly increased to be effective. The great natural cleanser is Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. HAVE you ever thought about the properties a floor varnish must possess to be a good floor varnish—to withstand the abuse to which it is exposed?

It must be hard enough, when dry, to remain under the pressure of a heavy piece of furniture, without showing a depression. It must be elastic enough to act as a cushion for the pounding of countless footsteps, without breaking. It must be tough enough to resist the scraping of moving furniture and it must be unharmful by water—hot or cold.

If it has all of these merits and in addition, provides a beautiful finish—then it is a good floor varnish.

"HAPPY DAYS"

At The State

Youth is the predominating note in "Happy Days," all talking, all singing, all dancing and all joking romance, in a minstrel show background. Especially is this true in a sequence that presents 20 or more babies in a huge baby buggy and Walter Catlett and Lucien Littlefield singing a parody on Janet Gaynor's and Charles Farrell's quaint number, "We'll Build a Little World of Our Own."

"Happy Days" is now playing at the State theater. It is a most lavishly staged and gorgeously costumed production, that introduces personalities of Will Rogers, Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, Victor Mc-Laglen, Edmund Lowe, Walter Cat-lett, William Collier, Sr., George Jessel, El Brendel, Marjorie White,
James J. Corbett, J. Harold Murray,
Ann Pennington, George MacFarlane, Tom Patricola, "Whispering"
Jack Smith, Warner Baxter, Nick
Stuart, David Rollins, Charles E.
Evans, Richard Keene and other stars in addition to George Olsen's band.

DOUBLE FEATURE

At The Grand

Making his first appearance in an all talking picture, Rin-Tin-Tin, the famous dog star, comes to the Grand as one of two features, playing there tonight and Saturday in
"On the Border."

The plot deals with the smuggling of Orientals over the Mexican boundary, into the United States.
Rinty, of course, takes the lead in bringing the criminals to justice.
Among the actors appearing in support of Rin-Tin-Tin are Armida, the captivating Mexican player,
John B. Litel, Philo McCullough,
Bruce Covington and Bill Irving.
William McGann directed.

"Wall Street"

A topic of timely interest—one that has been featured in bold type in newspapers above everything else and has been the chief item of conversation of the office boy and millionaire is the inside machinations of the New York Stock Exchange—Wall Street.

This subject has been dramatized in a novel and romantic manner under the title of "Wall Street" with Ralph Ince and Aileen Pringle in the leading roles.

Large Crowd Expected To Attend Night Relay Carnival Here

Greatest Audience In History Anticipated As Weather Clears Up

The prophets having promised an improvement in weather conditions the largest audience of track and field fans to have ever gathered in Reilly stadium for a spring athletic contest is anticipated for the first annual Salem High night relay carnival here tonight.

Preliminaries were in progress starting at 3 this afternoon and contestants in 10 events narrowed down to a minimum preparatory to finals slated to take place starting at 8 tonight. Many fans were on hand during the afternoon activities but at least 2,000 are expected as spectators to the first outdoor track and field meet ever held under floodlights in the United States.

The running track at the field was lauded as extremely fast by visiting coaches, officials and athletes while the entire playing grounds was in excellent condition for the event. With clear weather reigning as master of aeriform ceremonies and the mercury staying several degrees above the freezing mark, athletes may be expected to register marks that will give future contestants much to shoot for.

Good Marks Expected

Winning marks in tonight's events will probably be marked down as records for athletes in coming night meets to equal or surpass as Salem school officials hope to make the carnival an annual event. The weather will in all probability be colder than desired today and the crowd will be limited to a certain extent because of this elemental handicap but the meet should become a yearly occasion here should it be greeted favorably by the visiting schools.

All teams had not arrived up until noon but the greater part of the 20 who have been entered are expected. One or two may attend the Mansfield relays but this change of mind will not hamper the success of the carnival. The number of athletes competing here will undoubtedly reach the 350 mark.

THE DAY In Sports

RELAY INTEREST HIGH
FANS TO COOPERATE

This relay carnival here tonight will be a great event, one that will be viewed with combined interest and skepticism in many other sections of the United States. Salem took a forward move when it adopted the night football plan. It was lauded tremendously for its progressive action and school officials from all sections of the country have written to J. S. Alan and W. J. Springer, requesting information on night high school athletics.

The same will undoubtedly be true of night track. This carnival is an experiment for no where in interscholastic records is there any indication that there has ever been another meet similarly held.

BECAUSE OFF THE novelty of the occasion and then too, because some of Ohio's leading high school track and field talent will be performing in the 18 contests, representations from all over Ohio and probably other nearby states will be present.

Fans are asked to cooperate in making the relays successful.

Bad Weather Spells Trouble For Major Leaguers As Tilts Pile Up Into Double Headers

The present chills and dampness of spring appear to be storing up trouble for major league baseball teams almost as fast as they are piling up double headers.

Only one club so far has played all its games. The Chicago Cubs, gaining this honor, while the St. Louis Cardinals and Detroit Tigers have escaped serious consequences with but one postponement apiece.

More cold weather yesterday caused the postponement of all but two major league games and neither of these proved very profitable to the club owners. Only about 1,600 St. Louis fans turned out to see the Browns beat Detroit, 12 to 4, while about three times that number appeared at the Cubs park in Chicago to see the St. Louis Cardinals down National league champions, 9 to 2.

For the rest, the cold was piling up more grief. The Boston Braves, for example, seem headed for something like the slaughter of September 1928 when they played four successive double headers against the New York Giants and lost all eight games.

The Chicago White Sox also seem headed for trouble with six double headers scheduled against the Cleveland Indians and St. Louis Browns, both of whom have more pitching strength to hurl into the battle.

Although St. Louis gained all the glory in the two games that did survive yesterday, the teams owe it to a select few players. George Fisher, slugging young outfielder, played the leading role as the Cardinals downed the Cubs, scoring one run and driving in four.

Sylvester Johnson hurled the entire game for the Cards.

Fred Schulte and Chad Kimsey divided the honors in the Browns' triumph over Detroit. Schulte did most of the heavy hitting while Kimsey stepped in as a relief pitcher when Herman Holshouser began to wobble and shut out the Tigers without a hit for four innings.

Yanks in Trouble

The New York Yankees are in similar difficulties. Out of six games scheduled against Philadelphia, they succeeded in playing only the opener in each city. And the Yankees have a rather small staff of starting pitchers, ill fitted to endure the

Ohio State Athletic Board Favors Stahl

COLUMBUS, April 25—The Athletic board has put the stamp of approval upon appointment of Floyd Stahl to Ohio State university's coaching staff. Stahl, who made a splendid record as coach at Dayton Stivers high school, will have charge of the reserve football and freshman basketball teams and will assist in directing the Frosh baseball team.

CHICAGO — David R. Porgan, banker, would rather pay an employee more money for the same job if he plays golf, because he is better equipped physically, mentally and morally, as the result of golf, to do his work. He so remarked at a meeting of the Association of Commerce.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

A number of vegetables that flourish well in this country have been steadily neglected for years—until our foreign visitors made them popular. Broccoli is an example—and so is finocchio.

Finocchio is perhaps better known as "sweet fennel" in many sections, and it is a member of the parsley family, although it has much more edible material. It is shaped somewhat like celery in that it has a long stem topped by leaves, but it also has a thick round bulb at the base, and this is the choice part. The bulb is what guides one in choosing a bunch of finocchio—it should be fairly large, as there isn't much left to eat after the small ones are peeled. To prepare finocchio peel the bulbs and slice, and also cut in inch sections as much of the stalk as is tender. The rest of the stalk is too tough to eat, no matter how much one cooks it, and the leafy top, which is more like fern, is also inedible.

Finocchio is now in season, and it may prove very popular with the small persons who resent other greens, but are lured by the strange fennel flavor of this vegetable. In fact the use of a liberal variety of the greens, many of which have such different flavors, will frequently conquer the original aversion to these most desirable of foods. Finocchio probably has a more positive flavor than any other vegetable (except onion), and neither by appearance nor flavor can it be mentioned in the same breath with spinach, the despised. Also once the taste is acquired and liked finocchio can be cooked with other greens and impart its savor to the entire dish—tops of turnips, beets, radishes being particularly good fillers as they have no positive flavor of their own. Finocchio is so powerful that it overcomes all other flavors and even the juice in which cooked (if any does remain in the saucepan after cooking) will be adequate for seasoning other greens.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

The waterproof fabrics are invading almost every kind of home furnishing and nowadays what isn't done with paper can be done with some material equally alien to the laundry. There used to be an objection to waterproof materials for home use—when they were palpably substitutes for something better, and not so good-looking. Just as there was once an overwhelming objection to paper napkins by those who liked pretentious service, whether it was a strain on the laundry allowance or not. But like paper, which is now sold in such lovely patterns that it is almost damask-like, waterproof fabrics too come in beautiful patterns and colors so that they are positively decorative as well as practical.

Certainly for table service there is much to be said in favor of the new fabrics. Tablecloths, napkins, centerpieces can be made always to look brightly up and span nicely by the light rubbing of a damp cloth. Their first cost is not high, and their upkeep is nil. Modernistic patterns, flowered shintees and cretannes, all can be obtained in these waterproof materials—goodlooking, easy to clean, very durable and will look fresh for a long time. They can be used for family service in the dining room, but carrying them out of doors for a frozen meal won't subject them to any risk either. Any stains can be removed at once and with ease.

Perhaps the most necessary place for these waterproof fabrics was first started by the individual who discovered the fad for window curtains of wipeable material. Beautiful colors in the sheer rubber fabrics that look and even feel a little like silk, are used in bathroom and kitchen, and when a harmonious trim of another color is used the effect is really beautiful.

Cretonnes of waterproof fabric also come in patterns suitable for bathroom, kitchen, nursery or porch. They solve beautifully the problem of keeping perennially immaculate the draperies which get dusty most frequently. And after many cleanings the original beauty of pattern is still quite intact.

THIS charming frock for a small girl borrows its smart details from the grown-up mode. The shoulder capelets continue around the back to form a graceful cape. The semifitted bodice follows the princess mode, and continues to form a flared skirt. Ribbon or braid is used around neck, cape and belt.

Pattern 1890 may be made of dimity, pongee, crepe de chine, lawn, batiste, pique or fine linen. The ribbon carries out the color in the printed design. In plain colors, pastel shades are adorable for youngsters.

Designed only for sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 4 requires 1 1/2 yards of 36 inch material and 3/4 yards ribbon. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Konjola Brings Quick Relief In Long Illness

New Medicine Banishes Lids of Years Standing—Grateful Lady Relates Her Experience.

MRS. J. C. MEES

"This Konjola is surely a wonder-ful medicine," said Mrs. J. C. Meeks, 321 Twelfth street, Toledo, "and I don't have to take anyone's word for it. I know from my own experience. For years I suffered from many ills. Gas formed on my stomach after meals and caused pain and belching. My kidneys were weak and caused frequent back pains and I suffered rest. My feet swelled terribly from rheumatism and sharp, stabbing pains of neuritis attacked my neck and shoulders until I nearly screamed with agony. "My stomach responded to the Konjola treatment after I had taken but two bottles, and in six weeks I was entirely free from all my ailments. Even those terrible neuritis pains are no longer felt, and my feet do not swell and pain me. Is it to be wondered at that I am enthusiastic about this splendid medicine?"

Each of Konjola's ingredients, 22 of which are the juices of natural plants combined with other renowned medicinal elements, has a special duty to perform on the ailing organs. Thousands who have taken from six to eight bottles have declared there is no other medicine like it.

Konjola is sold in Salem, Ohio at The J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three Stores and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

GRAHAM

After Three Years of Preparation Now Gives an Impressive Object Lesson in Greater Value-Giving

$845
Price at factory

The way has been well paved for this exhibition of greater value-giving which the Graham brothers are now able to present, by nearly three years spent in perfecting their plant processes and by the manufacturing volume awarded by more than 160,000 owners.

Those valuable years, were preceded by more than 20 years in which they have tried earnestly to hold fast to the conviction that quality is the best policy in quantity production as in everything else.

In those progressive years the Gramhas have learned much of incalculable value. They owe all they have to their public and they pass on now, at a moment when they believe it will be most appreciated, the fruits of their experience, in a line of cars so obviously superior in value that they advertise themselves—at prices so strikingly attractive that they represent impressive object lessons in greater value-giving.

A careful check with those who really abuse tires will convince you why so many prefer Goodrich Silvertowns. They eliminate the hardships of the road, because they are built to wear.

THINK that over, tire buyers! Thirty thousand miles... and still not ready to quit! Thirty thousand miles of far more concentrated punishment than your tires ever get... and asking for more!

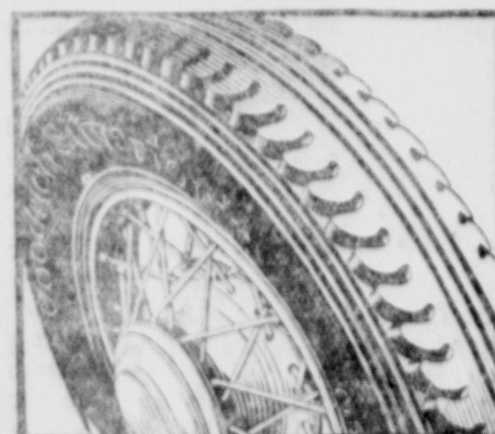

That's the actual record of the standard 6-ply Silvertown from the Goodrich Silver Fleet pictured above. It made the entire tour last year... 30,000 miles... and is right now piling up even more thousands of miles on the 1930 Silver Fleet.

We've got the blood brothers of this tire... tires exactly like it in manufacture, materials and ability to take punishment. Tires that can give you this same kind of mileage.

More than that... we're featuring these tires right now. They're the main event in our big tire sale, now going on. They never were expensive... and with the performance that's built into them, and at the prices we have put in effect, they're the cheapest tires, mile for mile, that you can buy anywhere!

FARMERS HIT BY DIETING, CLAIM

Agriculture Secretary Tells Club Of Idea on Short Eating; Soil Tillers Hard Hit

CHICAGO, April 25.—Arthur M. Hyde, secretary of agriculture, suggested to the Chicago Commercial club last night that widespread dieting is in part responsible for the losses of the farmers.

"If there were no diet experts influencing the people in what they should eat there would be no farm product surplus," said Secretary Hyde.

The secretary declared the economic tendencies of the country are against the farmer, the introduction of the automobile and the tractor on the farm has thrown into disuse all the horses that were formerly used, and this, in turn, throws into the market all the production of those acres that were formerly used to feed livestock.

OWA-TON-NA PUTS AN END TO GETTING UP NIGHTS

My Nerves and Stomach Have Improved Wonderful ly Since Taking This Fine Old Indian Remedy

MR. H. L. DAVIS

Among the many who endorse this fine old Indian Remedy is Mr. H. L. Davis, 431 Merriman Pl., S. E. Canton, Ohio who has suffered with conditions which are quite often excruciating and hard to overcome. He says: "For the past five or six years I have suffered with stomach, kidney, liver and bladder disorders. I spent a great deal of money trying to find relief and tried so many different remedies, medicines and treatments that I hardly knew what else to do."

"You can imagine my surprise when even the latest bottle showed me that Owa-Ton-Na acted differently. My stomach felt better, food agreed with me, I could feel a change in my whole system. My appetite improved, gas and bloating spells disappeared. I don't have any trouble with dizziness now or with headaches. My bladder condition has improved wonderfully and I can go to bed at night and get a good night's sleep. Pains in my joints are gone and my nerves are much better. Although I have tried many different things for relief, none of them has ever given me near the results that Owa-Ton-Na has. I gladly recommend this fine old Indian Remedy to other sufferers."

Owa-Ton-Na is a highly successful formula based upon the most famous Indian herbs. These roots, herbs, bark and berries act upon the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, cleansing, toning and bring energy to these vital organs. Sold in Salem at J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three Stores.—Adv.
